

Alison Lovelace, BCBA

Alison is the Director of Intensive Behavior Supports for the Anchorage School District. She has over 20 years of working in the public education system, within 3 different states; in the roles of special education teacher, consultant for students with autism, and special education administrator. Additionally, Alison has experience working with high conflict families in the family court system, providing behavioral health services to children & families in their homes, leading professional development workshops, and collaborating with educational leaders on improving behavioral programming.