

Alison Lovelace, Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)

Alison is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) and has certifications in Educational Leadership, Child & Family Forensics, and Organizational Behavior Management (OBM). Alison attends The Chicago School of Professional Psychology for a PhD in Behavior Analysis with a concentration in OBM. She has over 20 years of working in the public education system, within 3 different states; in the roles of special education teacher, consultant for students with autism, and special education administrator. Alison is the founder of BX-OP Behavior Opportunities. BX-OP is a private practice working in homes, schools, and in the family court system. The foundation of BX-OP is based on the science of behavior and trauma informed practices when developing plans for families.