PEER POWER PRESENTS

SELF-ADVOCACY TRAINING

Peer Power of Alaska is proud to present an advocacy training by people with disabilities for people with disabilities. This interactive training, designed for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, includes small group conversations, role plays and sharing stories. At the end of this training, participants will be invited to share what they have learned and earn an advocacy certificate.

Join board members from Peer Power Alaska and help the voices of Alaskans with disabilities grow even stronger!

REGISTRATION- IT'S FREE!
