

Shelbi Davenport was blessed with being told NO! Doctors, councilors, and well-meaning teachers set the stage for her to overcome every obstacle in her path. After six long years, Shelbi graduated “Cum Laude” from Texas A&M University. Shelbi is known nationally for her outspoken advocacy for people with labels to find their rightful place in the community. She brings a wealth of lived experience, exceptional training skills, and has developed her own training curriculums. Shelbi has emerged as a leader, speaker and planner.